PRICE THREE CENTS

BUSHNELL IS CHOSEN

As the Republican Nominee For Governor of Ohio.

BUT SIX BALLOTS NECESSARY.

Eight Aspirants For the Gubernatorial Stakes.

RECEIVED 509 OUT OF 827 VOTES.

Two Withdrawals After the Third Ballot and the Delegates Showed Their Ballots in Favor of the Man From Springfield. Ex-Governor Foraker Appears on the Scene and Takes Personal Charge of His Senatorial Honor.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 20.—The Ohio Republican state convention upon reassembling in the evening made the temporary organization permanent.

The contested delegations from the Toledo and Springfield districts were not counted.

With a corresponding number of speeches the following names were presented to the convention for the nomination for governor: J. W. Barger, J.

ASA S. BUSHNELL.

Warren Keifer, J. H. Hoyt, George K. Nash, Robert M. Nevins, A. L. Harris and E. W. Poe. General Bushnell's name was not presented by any speaker.

There were 824 delegates in the convention, 414 being necessary to a choice. The balloting then commenced and was as follows:

Candidates. Ballots.

Bushnell 1 2 3 4 5 6

Barger 89 83 86 32 110 508

Harris 56 44 37 36 3 11

Keifer 170 180 105 118 12 111

Nash 62 63 40 16 13 11

Nevins 167 100 120 237 279 201

Poe 8 81 78 145 138 65

Poe withdrawn after third ballot.

President Woodmansee, Secretary Miller and other officers of the Republican league of Ohio, together with ex-Governor Foraker, who was sitting on the stage at the time, telegraphed their congratulations to General Bushnell at his home in Springfield.

The Clark county delegation, from Bushnell's home, stood out for General Keifer till the last ballot, when it gave each half of its vote. The result of the nomination was received as a great victory for Foraker, and very loud demonstrations followed.

The Platform.

Ex-Secretary Charles Foster took the stand at midnight to read the resolutions, but the convention voted to give him leave to print, whereupon the convention adjourned to 9 a. m. today. The resolutions are as follows:

The Republicans of Ohio, in convention assembled, congratulate the people of the country upon the signal victory in the state and congressional districts last fall securing a glorious national victory in 1896, and declare as follows:

First.—We reaffirm our adherence to the principles of the Republican party as defined by the national convention in 1892, chief among which are:

A protective tariff, which restoring American wages and American products, shall serve the highest interests of American labor and American development, while providing adequate revenue for the uses of the government.

Reciprocity, which, while seeking and gaining the world's markets for our surplus products, shall not lower or destroy American wages nor surrender our own markets to foreign commodities which can be produced at home.

Fair elections, based upon a free ballot and an honest count, the safeguard of American institutions, the true source of public authority.

Honest money, consisting of gold, silver and paper, every dollar as good as any other dollar, backed by the national faith and honor. We favor bimetallic, and demand the use of both gold and silver as standard money.

We denounce the present Democratic administration, whose vicious and vacillating course has brought us distress at home and humiliation abroad.

It has inaugurated a policy looking toward ultimate free trade, which has destroyed our homes and dealt labor a serious blow. With deplorable incompotence it has failed to raise revenue enough to run the government and has had to borrow in less than two years $12,000,000, mainly to pay ordinary running expenses, selling in secret in favor of foreign syndicates the bonds of the government at prices far below their actual value.

We denounce the free wool provision of the present tariff act as an unjust discrimination against an important industry, and demand such protection for sheep husbandry as will secure fair prices for American wool.

We denounce the present administration of the pension bureau for its betrayal of the interests of the Union soldiers, and we pledge anew to the veterans of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

We endorse the able, honest and businesslike administration of Governor William McKinley. We are unanimously in favor of his reelection, and looking to the action of the last general assembly in returning to the policy of the founders of our state constitution in that regard; we commend the last general assembly for the wise and economical management of the state and for the franchise enjoyed at the hands of the state, and thus relieving to that extent the burden of taxation now resting upon the people.

The other traits in the platform are: The construction and operation of the Nicaragua canal by the United States; ex-Governor Foraker is endorsed for United States senator and McKinley for president.

Sympathy is expressed for the death of Secretary of State Sherman.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Everything Golden in Shape For the Cool-look in the Evening.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 20.—The Republican state convention was called to order here promptly at 4 p. m. by Colonel Joseph C. Bonner, chairman of the state committee. A half hour previous the hall was packed to its full capacity of 5,000, and a large number was unable to gain admission. Senator Sherman was given a stirring ovation when he was escorted into the hall at 3:30 by Congressman Van Voorhis and Judge Granger. Ex-Secretary Charles Foster, members of congress, several of the candidates and others were cheered as they entered.

On the platform were Judges West, Lawrence, Baldwin and a large number of leading Republicans. When Judge West, who was the Republican candidate for governor in 1877, was being escorted to the platform, Senator Sherman came down to greet him, and the scene occasioned a marked demonstration.

While Chairman Bonner, who is a member of McKinley's staff, was eloquently congratulating the Republicans on the result of the last Ohio election and forecasting another triumph for next November, ex-Governor Foraker entered the hall and very vociferously denounced the platform.

After Chairman Bonner had made repeated efforts to secure order and proceed with his introductory remarks, ex-Governor Foraker came to the front of the platform and said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION—I hope you will not think me a disturber of the deliberations of the convention. There will be time for us all to be heard before we leave Zanesville. [More shouting than previously.] It is a good thing to stay over night in Zanesville, just as long as our business may require. At the proper time, when that will be in order, I will be very glad indeed to exchange greetings with you; but I beg for the present that you will not interrupt me. I am going to proceed with my speech in order to expedite the business of the convention. [Great applause.]

Even after this speech it was with great difficulty that Colonel Bonner cut short his remarks and introduced to the demonstrative assemblage Senator John Sherman, as temporary chairman. Senator Sherman met Foraker on the stage at the first of the remarks that he hoped to see the Republicans of Ohio keep up such a pitch of enthusiasm till the next November election. The senator commended the closest attention during his speech.

When he had finished the 21 congressional districts were called for members of the committee on resolutions. The Clark county delegation, from Bushnell's home, stood out for General Keifer till the last ballot, when it gave each half of its vote. The result of the nomination was received as a great victory for Foraker, and very loud demonstrations followed.

GRESHAM'S SUCCESSOR.

Bayard, Gray, Uhl and Dickinson Are Mentioned.

MR. BAYARD WANTS TO COME HOME

He Filled the Position One Term. Mr. Uhl, Who Has Been Acting Secretary of State During the Illness of Mr. Gresham, Also Stated a Good Show of Resigning the Appointment.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Under the law the president will have to appoint a successor to Secretary Gresham within the next 10 days. Consequently there is already considerable speculation as to the next secretary of state.

It can be readily understood, of course, that the president has not as yet given any consideration to this matter. It is regarded as quite possible, however, that Ambassador Bayard may be called from London to fill the post.

Mr. Bayard is understood to be anxious to return to this country, and it might be easier for the president to find some one to represent this country at the court of St. James than to pick out a new secretary. If Mr. Bayard is not chosen, Senator Gray of Delaware is looked upon as standing a most excellent chance of selection. He has kept well posted on foreign news and has been an ardent supporter of the administration in the Hawaiian and Bering sea troubles.

There is also some mention of the name of Don M. Dickinson, even though the latter has given preference to a vice-presidential nomination. Dickinson is a late winner who was hardly in accordance with the position assumed by the administration.

There is also a strong possibility that the president may promote Assistant Secretary of State Uhl, who during Mr. Gresham's illness was acting as secretary of state, and in that capacity attended the meetings of the cabinet.

SECRETARY GRESHAM'S FUNERAL

Held in Washington Today.—To Be Buried in Chicago.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Funeral services for the remains of the late Secretary Gresham were held in the east room of the White House this morning at 10 o'clock. All the executive departments will be closed on that day under an executive order.

It is the present intention of the family, as communicated to a personal friend who was one of the earliest callers, to have the body of Secretary Gresham buried in Chicago.

Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The president yesterday issued the following proclamation:

Walter Q. Gresham, secretary of state of the United States, is dead. The president, in making this statement, expresses his sincere sympathy for the family of the deceased, and his regret that the death of this able and devoted official has occurred at such a young age.

By the President.

EDWARD F. HILL, Acting Secretary of State.

OSCAR IN PRISON.

His Hair is Cropped and He Wears the Stripes.

LONDON, May 20.—Wildie and Taylor attended the prison chapel at Pentonville yesterday. Their hair was cropped and they were in the prison garb. The two prisoners will only be allowed to see their friends four times in the year on condition of their good conduct.

Punishable by Death.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., May 20.—The sensational assault upon a girl at Danville last week and the subsequent lynching of the colored man charged with the crime, have been the subject of much discussion in the house, a bill being introduced amending the criminal code so as to make the crime of rape punishable by death. The bill was read a first time, and a motion to suspend the rules and make the measure a special order for today was also adopted.

Fast Stabbing Affair.

SANMICA, Pa., May 20.—Joseph Morrison fatally stabbed Andrew Simons, a stripping boss, as the latter lay asleep in his slumbers at Coldale. Morrison had been accused with intimacy with Simons' wife and engaged at the charges entered by the latter against Morrison, to kill the sleeping man's abdomen. Death ensued an hour later.

Bicycle Record Broken.

LOUISVILLE, May 20.—W. C. Dirmber broke the world's record for one-third of a mile, flying start, unpaired, at the Fountain Ferry track yesterday. He rode the distance in 36.5 seconds. The former record was held by Arthur Garfield, who made the distance in 39.15 at Waltham.

Trunks and Suits.

BERNE, May 20.—A tremendous avalanche of rock has fallen from the Schwarzwald mountain into the valley, destroying the entire forest on the slope of the mountain. Fortunately no one was injured.

Negroes Break Jail.

LAKE CITY, Fla., May 20.—Six negroes confined in jail at this place escaped. They burned a hole through the door of the cell. All were charged with trivial offenses.

IN THE THIRD BALLOT

Monnetti is Nominated for Attorney General.

W. L. Parmenter Wins a Second Fight in the Second Ballot as Turned Down—Convention News.

CONVENTION HALL, ZANNAVILLE, May 20th.—(Special).—W. L. Parmenter, of Lima, was turned down at the nomination to-day for Attorney General. He showed his greatest strength on the second ballot and then fell off one-half on the next, being defeated by Hamilton county on the third ballot. The Allen county Foraker delegation were doubly crossed by their own people and will return home somewhat chagrined. In the balloting for Governor last night Allen county, second in the call, was the first to swing solidly into the Bushnell column and started the boom for him on the third ballot. It was expected that the Foraker people would stay by Parmenter, but they had bigger fish to fry and the Lima crowd will come home under cover of darkness.

On the first ballot Parmenter had 141, West 714, Schroth 42, Monnetti, 174, Eckley 124. Daugherty 1871, Jones 87.

Second ballot—Parmenter 160, West 21, Monnetti 280, Eckley 89, Daugherty 284 and Jones 26. Schroth withdrew.

Third ballot—West and Jones withdrew. Parmenter 75, Monnetti 486, Eckley 30, Daugherty 236.

Gen. Am. Jones was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation. Galtier, on second ballot, for Auditor. Minshall, for Judge Supreme Court, second ballot.

A BOLD BURGLAR

Robt. T. W. Bacchus while He is Asleep in His Room.

Last night a burglar entered the room occupied by T. W. Bacchus in Geo. Hoffman's residence, on west North street, and while Mr. Bacchus was sleeping robbed him of a new pair of trousers, the pockets of which contained $4 in money, a bunch of keys and a few other valuables. It is supposed that the robber gained entrance through the window, on second floor, as the door was fastened and the window open. There is no clue to the identity of the thief.

STREET TALK

Yesterday an old gentleman stopped in front of Harman's store on Main street and noticed the large floor pump which is used to pump air to inflate bicycle tires. After looking the thing over carefully he decided that it was a lung tester, and thinking that no one was looking at him, he concluded to test his lungs. He gathered up the end of the rubber hose, and drawing the long breath, blew until his eyes bulged out, but he could discover nothing about the machine that would indicate that he had an ounce of force to his lungs. He tried a second and third time with the same result, then apparently concluded that he was too aged to pump a pair of lungs. He looked ten years older and started toward an attorney's office to make his last will and testament. He did not look back, but if he had he would have seen Pete Laughlin and the dummies in front of the Lima Clothing Co.'s store taking a good laugh at his expense.

If you want the news read the evening TIMES-DEMOCRAT. Yesterday it contained a full account of the death of Secretary of State Gresham, which occurred at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Our morning contemporary, the Gazette, who goes to press at 4 o'clock a. m., several hours after the secretary died, gives its handful of readers the information next day, thirty hours after its occurrence.

Archie Cameron is building a new residence on a handsome lot recently purchased by him on the market street, west of Jamison avenue. It will be quite a handsome structure.

The County Central Committee met this afternoon in the Circuit Court room and organized by electing D. E. Baxter, of Delphos, chairman, and W. J. O'Connor, secretary, and John Crumrine treasurer. The Police Force in One of the Worst Kind.

The Police Ordinance Not Complied with the Council Decision as to the Police Force in One of the Worst Kind.

According to the views of certain members of the city council, Lima will be without a police force after the expiration of this month.

The views of these councilmen are taken from a legal standpoint and are based upon the police ordinance which was passed December 18, 1893. Furthermore the councilmen are dissatisfied with the action of Mayor Smiley in cutting off the heads of patrolmen Patton, Phalen and Jackson and there will doubtless be a big squabble over the affair before it is ended.

The police ordinance provides that there shall be organized a regular city police force, consisting of not less than ten members nor more than fourteen members, the exact number to be annually determined by a resolution of the city council prior to the regular levy of taxes for municipal purposes, and all members of the said regular police force shall annually be appointed by the mayor of the city, and duly confirmed by a majority vote of all members of the city council.

The ordinance further provides that all such appointments made by the mayor of either regular or special policemen, shall be placed before the council before the first Monday in June in each and every year. That after the expiration of one year no policeman who has previously served shall be assigned to duty unless reappointed by the mayor and again confirmed by the council.

The annual tax levy was made two weeks ago last Monday, but previous to that time no resolution was passed by the council in compliance with the ordinance in reference to the number of policemen. Neither has the provision of the ordinance been complied with in reference to officers being confirmed before the first Monday in June. Patrolman Tinkham was appointed and confirmed several weeks ago, and therefore when next Monday arrives, it being the first Monday in June, Tinkham will be the only officer who can legally be assigned to duty.

The trouble has arisen apparently through the mayor's failure or rather refusal to reappoint Patton, Phalen and Jackson. Patton has served six years on the police force in this city and has always been recognized as one of the most competent officers. Phalen has served five years, two of them, while his competency has never been questioned. Jackson, who is now serving his third year, was also faithful, and together with Patton and Phalen made many friends while on the force.

Nothing is said against Messrs. Furry, Watts and Vena, whom the mayor appointed to succeed Patton, Phalen and Jackson, but the friends of the latter, do not intend to see them slaughtered without cause, other than the political obligations or promises which they claim the mayor is acting under.

Had the three patrolmen named been reappointed by the mayor last Monday night, the appointments, all confirmed by the council, but when the names of Patton, Phalen and Jackson were not read, a motion was promptly made to refer the matter to the police committee, and the motion prevailed; consequently the first Monday in June will have been only one policeman will have been confirmed and the long knives which were sharpened up for mayor Smiley when he refused to appoint Ed Cunningham, the Republican candidate for the position of city chief, will be used with telling effect.

McCullough's Lake Will be opened to-morrow, with a free band concert in the evening. The steamer, Maid of the Mist, will leave the dock every fifteen minutes.

It is really laughable to see one of our "me-too's" offering rewards to the public if they can find a bargain in his shop. We are pleased to learn that this "me-too" makes a public confession that a bargain is as hard a thing to find in his shop as a needle in a hay stack; henceforth this "me-to" offers a reward. THE MAMMOTH don't offer rewards to find bargains. Every article in our store pertains to the word BARGAIN. We guarantee every suit sold during this grand special sale to be from 40 to 50 per cent. cheaper than we can produce the same quality from any shop in Lima.
